PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

It has come to the attention of the Council that soil and mud has been dumped on the footpath from the school to Ashbury. This has made it difficult for people to walk down. It is a thoroughly unsocial act and we have now had to call in the Highways Dept to help clear it. Whoever, is responsible please ensure that you never do it again.

PARISH CHURCH NEWS

Ploughman's Lunch

There will be a Ploughman's' lunch in the Church room on Saturday September 3rd, from 12 until 2pm. Tickets from PCC members nearer the time.

Thank you!

Lillian Gratton would like to take this opportunity to thank most sincerely everyone for all their kindness and messages of concern to herself and Lew since he has been in hospital. Lew is back in Holsworthy Hospital now and rapidly making progress. Lily says that all the kindness shown has been a great comfort to her at this worrying time. Thanks!

More thanks!

It's becoming a habit! Just a short thanks to all who supported our Church Festival on July 9th.

Despite a few little local difficulties it was a very good day and sun shone on Shaun and Wenna's field. The bells rang, the Church was full, Becket got his message across and the tea was lovely. Many thanks to all the helpers – you know who you are, so that's OK and it was great to see he Maypole one more being danced around. We made a profit of £644.90 for Church funds.

Thanks everyone.

VICTORY HALL NEWS

The committee would like to thank Tracey & Betty Spry for organizing the Cream Tea event. It was well supported. Thanks to everyone who helped, gave draw prizes and attended. Proceeds amounted to £600 of which £300 went to the Hall Fund and £300 went to Exeter Leukaemia Fund.

NORTHLEW AND ASHBURY PRIMARY SCHOOL NEWS

The PTFA would like to say a huge thank you to everyone, despite the short notice, who came, donated or bought a ticket for their annual Duck Race which took place on 14th July. The event was brought forward by 24 hours as bad weather was predicted for the Friday.

Even though there wasn't much water in the stream the ducks eventually reached their destination. The winners were:-

William Ruggiers in first place
winning £50
Tanya Haycocks in second place
winning £30
Sue Merron in third place winning £15.

We had a great evening – selling out at the barbeque, reaching a total of £676 for PTFA funds.

Many thanks again
Anji Short (Chair)
