Thank you!

Ron and Pat Carter

Would like to say a very big thank you to everyone in Northlew for over 100 cards we received, the offers of help and the lifts to and from both hospitals, RD&E and Derriford. We would like a special thank you to go to Maureen and Geoff from Bratton who looked after me so well after the accident. Ron and Irene, Marge Rundle, Elizabeth and Howard, Val Dann, Elvira and Derek, Julian and Bart. Many, many thanks to you all.

The Curry night held recently raised £258.80 for the refurbishment fund. Look out for the next "foodie" delight, of Sausage and Mash next month in the Northlew newsletter and on posters.

Church Festival

Many thanks to everyone who came and supported our Patronal Festival. It was a pity it had to be in the Hall, but the field was just too soggy, Shaun had cut it all ready for the stalls, too! The Maypole couldn't be danced around nor the coconut shy "shied" at, but the stalls were well patronised and, as always, the tea was really super.

The Arch-deacon of Totnes was our special preacher at the Festival service and luckily he had a sense of humour! Archbishop Becket was duly bumped off once again and the band played for the hymns. Thanks to all, not mentioning names as it's too easy to forget someone! We made a profit of £457.75 for Church funds, still creeping up as there are still some unsold items still available. Ever hopeful!

Rose Bissoni

Rose passed away recently and is now at peace in the churchyard. She and Derek and their family lived for several years at Kesterfield and youngsters who would be in their forties/fifties probably remember Rose driving their school taxi. Stephen Andrew is her son-in-law and we offer Julie, Stephen and all the rest of Rose's family our sympathy on the loss of Julie's Mum. May she rest in peace, after a long struggle with illness.

Ron and Pat

Good to know that Pat and Ron Carter are on the mend after a very unpleasant few weeks. Hopefully any little 'local difficulties' will soon right themselves and we'll see Ron out on the march again.

Ploughman's Lunch

There will be one of these lovely lunches at the beginning of September – the 8th I think. Watch out for posters.
